

Circular No. (2) of 2021

To:
Ports general directors
All shipping agents
Operating companies at ports

Subject: Compliance with the Common Customs Law
Saudi Ports Authority stresses on all customers to comply with the Common Customs Law and emphasize on the shipping services under your agency and the tug masters to ensure the storage areas onboard are closed during the berthing process at Saudi ports, and to not exchange gifts of any kind inside the port, along with informing all companies and their representatives that the concerned authorities will be taking the necessary measures on violators.

For implementation on all employees.
